laid over one day under the rules. a President announced the following committees: amittee to enquire into the expediency of amend-Constitution so as to restore annual sessions of the Assembly, and annual election of members: Wessis. Osborne, Howard, Battle of Wake, Thornton and committee on resolution of Mr. Rayner to consider the y of the 46th section of the Constitution of the perning the calling of Yeas and Nays in the Gen-Messs, Hayner, Merritt, Berry, Royster and Hicks.

the motion prevailed and resolution read. on motion of Mr. Ellison, 9 (the hour for meeting) was Wr. Garrell moved to strike out 14 (the hour for recess,) ken out, and 10 inserted. insert 2; also to strike out 34 (the hour for re-assem-

.) and insert 4. Accepted by Mr. Ellison. Jones of Rowan, moved to strike out all after 10 A The question was then put upon the resolution as amen-, on motion of Mr. Gorrell, and decided in the affirma-Yeas 75-Nays 15.

cas and nays demanded by Mr. Ellison.

above change. Adopted.

r. Hicks, the following resolution: wed, That a committee of five be appointed to eninto the propriety of so changing the Constitution of state as to declare that those who have not reached the I twenty-one years are ineligible to a seat in the lower of the General Assembly, and that those who are r the age of twenty-five years, are ineligible to a seat he Senate of the said General Assembly. olved, That the said committee be instructed to preand report an ordinance to this Convention embracing r, speed, the following resolution. That the Committee on Constitutional amendinstructed to enquire into the expediency of so the State Constitution as to reduce the number of to thirty-two; and the classification of the same, heet one-third every two years, so that the entire he changed every six years, if the election for the Commons be held bi-annually, or so that one-fourth ected every year, if the election to the House of s be held annually, so that the entire body shall be every four years; also to enquire into the expedi-

ducing the number of the House of Commons to Adopted. Stewart of Alexander, a resolution providing that no shall speak more than twenty minutes on any t until the permanent constitution, the defences of teste, and the election of delegates to the Southern shall have been disposed of. Laid over one day

Ward, a resolution, that from and after Saturday this Convention take a recess until the 22d of July anless it shall be sooner convened by proclamation of rday, which was accepted. Eleks moved to strike out 22d of July, and insert Monday in October next. r. Graham moved to refer it to a special committee to when the public interest will admit of an adjourns speed to add, " and also to enquire into the expedi adjourning to re-assemble at Beaufort.' considerable discussion upon the resolutions and ants, Mr. Pettigrew moved that the whole matter be tion did not prevail. Yeas 51-nays 53. tion of Mr. Craige, the Convention went into secret After some time spent in secret session the doors ished business of yesterday, being the ordinance musty the permanent Constitution of the Confederate ir, Graham obtained the floor and addressed the Con-

Badger obtained the floor for the purpose of address-Convention upon the ordinance on to-morrow. har announced Messrs. Craige, Woodfin, Graham, reli and McNeill of Cumberland, as the Committee upon red an ordinance to create a Board of Claims, reported tute for the same, recommending Messrs. John H. and of Rockingham, Isaac B. Sawyer of Buncombe, and | ment and reference to the people. mended the passage of said substitute.

it to its second and third readings, but objection being | the ordinance and against the amendments. de by Mr. Spruill of Bertie, was placed on the calendar.

FIFTEENTH DAY. WEDNESDAY, June 5th, 1861. The President called the Convention to order at 11 o'clock. rayer by Rev. Mr. Smith, the delegate to the Convenfrom the county of Macon-egate elect from the county of New Hanover, to supply Holmes appeared and took his seat. Mr. Craige, from the committee, appointed upon the mmunication of the Governor received in secret session sterday, submitted a report thereon, and moved that Convention go into secret session for its consideration, withdrew the motion at the request of Mr. Badger, who on moved to take up the ordinance introduced by himself lew days ago, providing the manner in which all ordinan-

Mr. Ashe presented the credentials of John L. Holmes, salad be authenticated. The motion prevailed, and the mance read the 3d time and passed. Mr. Badger moved to take up the amendments to the s of order which were presented by himself on yester-Agreed to, and the same were read and adopted. Badger then introduced a resolution, instructing the Telary of the Convention to insert these amendments and ional rules in their proper places among the rules of er, renumber the whole, and have 250 copies of the same On motion of Mr. Stewart, the resolution introduced by medion yesterday limiting the time that each Delegate all occupy the floor on any question, was taken up for

ir. spraill moved to lay the same on the table. Armifield demanded the year and nays. Mr. Craige then renewed his motion to go into secret ses-on for the consideration of the report of the committee. lemotion prevailed, and the Convention proceeded to sit opened and the unfinished business of yesterday, viz: e ordinance to adopt the permanent constitution of the attederate states, was taken up. The pending proposiwas that of Mr. Graham to postpone the subject until

Mr. Badger addressed the Convention at length upon the al merits of the ordinance, (favoring its immediate ion without a reference to the people,) and in reply be remarks of Messrs, Graham and Battle, of Wake,

Mr. hullin arose to address the Convention, but yielded ligor to Mr. Manning, of Chatham, who spoke in defence ndment of Mr. Dick, to refer to the people, and ing as his reasons why he should vote for a reference, at a settled sense of his constituents that this question be submitted to the people at the ballot box, and he and not in violation of their wishes vote against the protion of reference; and secondly that it would remove ections in this State urged against other Southern bek succeeded Mr. Manning, and defended at conble length his proposition to refer, but did not, howenter into the general merits of the ordinance. Mr. Rayner moved that the further consideration of the matter be postponed until 11 o'clock to-morrow. Disagreed Mr. dilmer moved that the Convention adjourn.

Mr. Leake, of Richmond, demanded the yeas and nays. otion did not prevail-Yeas 50, nays 54. tiffin then obtained the floor, spoke against the amendment, and in reply to Mr. Dick. At the conclusion of Mr. R's remarks, he moved, as there the other gentlemen who desired to speak upon this ques-has that the Convention now adjourn in order to afford them an opportunity of addressing the Convention on to-Mr. Canningham demanded the yeas and nays. The molon was lost-Yeas 48, nays 56.

Mr. Satterthwaitd moved that the further consideration the subject be postponed until II o'clock to-morrow. and that it be made the special order for that hour. The Motion prevailed and the Convention adjourned.

SIXTEENTH DAY. THURSDAY, June 6th, 1861. The Convention was called to order by the President at

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Hankel, the Delegate to the Conven-In the county of Catawba. The Journal of yesterday read and confirmed. RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED. By Mr. Biggs, a resolution, that this Convention adjourn present session on ----- next, at 6 o'clock, A. M., that the 1st Monday in October, or to be convened sooner Il necessary, by proclamation of the President and in case of his death, by five of its Delegates. Referred to the comlattee on adjournment recently appointed. by the same, a resolution to repeal the resolution of the ate session of the General Assembly requiring it to re-as-Emble on the 25th inst., and that the Legislature shall meet. Haywood Rangers, Captain R. G. A. Love. in regular session on the — October next. Referred Jackson Rangers, Captain A. W. Coleman.

to the Committee appointed a few days since on this subject. Mr. Smith, of Macon, a resolution instructing the committee on finance to enquire into the claims of Sheriffs for holding the election for Delegates to this Convention, and Henderson Guards, Captain W. M. Shipp. Mr. Wilson, a resolution to amend the state Constitution, striking out the 33d section of the Constitution, and to proyide for the election of Judges and Justices of the Peace by the people. Referred to a special committee on this sub-

Mr. Hamlin, a resolution to amend the Constitution, so he to allow soldiers having a legal residence in this State Rutherford Volunteers, Captain C. T. N. Davis. to vote for all officers to which the people of the State are Burke Tigers, Captain E. J. Kirksey. entitlee to vote for. Lies over one day under the rule. By Mr. Armfield, a resolution to so amend the Constitution as to remove restrictions on Clergymen, while exertising their pastoral functions, to hold civil office. Past first reading and laid over under the rule. Mr. Green moved to take up the resolution authorizing the election of Delegates to the Confederate Congress .-

people were read.

The pending question was upon the motion of Mr. Gorrell to insert eight instead of five. Mr. Ellison suggested to the mover of the resolution to modify it, so as to provide for the election by the Convention of two for the State at large and eight to be elected by the people of the several Congressional Districts.

trict. He said at first he was in favor of the smaller number, (five) but now was inclined to go for the larger, (ten) for the State at large, and one for each Congressional Dis-elected, but it was immaterial with him by what mode they derogation of their duty as subjects of a neutral sovbe placed in their hands. There are thousands of our citizens now out of the State acting in a military capacity, who would not have an opportunity of voting for the delegates;

Mr. Gorrell said it would be better to elect eight to correspond with the representation in the late Congress of the posed in the resolution, (five) and still considered that a sufficient number, but as there seemed to be a decided will of the House to elect ten, he would vote for that number, The question recurred upon the amendment of Mr.

Gorrell, and it was adopted. announced the special order, which was the ordinance to of nations in that behalf imposed. ratify the permanent Constitution of the Confederate States. The question being on the motion of Mr. Graham to post pone the same until the 1st Monday in August.

Mr. Headen arose and addressed the Convention He said Ruffin. He had listened to the remarks of Mr. Graham with a desire not to agree with him on the question of postponement. He was at first averse to postoning this matter, but listening to others he had not heard any argument deduced to overthrow those of the Delegate from Orange .-He had, after deliberate and calm reflection arrived at the conclusion that the position assumed by the gentleman from Orange was a correct one.

Mr. H. spoke at length in favor of the amendment of Mr. Dick, to submit the ordinance of ratification to the people and assigned several reasons why this should be done.

and in the election of the first President. Mr. Rayner spoke at considerable length upon the question at issue and in reply mainly to the argument of Messrs. to the banks of the Rio Grande, is heard the martial war by land or sea, such as cannons, mortars, guns, six feet deep, but there was under it a soft mud, which Ruffin and Badger, in regard to the admission of other note of preparation. The laborer is quitting his fields, muskets, rifles, pistols, petards, bombs, grenades, balls, was sounded to the depth of six feet more; and the gun E. Hall. States into the Confederacy under the supervision of the below the surface of the Confederate the Confederate

Mr. Venerable then addressed the Convention favoring the immediate adoption of the ordinance of ratification. that North Carolina would acquire, in the event of the adoption of the permanent Constitution, all the rights and privileges of all the other States, and to sustain his position read | battle. Even the free negro, the unconscious represent- | wrought iron and planks only excepted. the act of Congress providing for the admission of North plaining wrongs have roused into frenzy all the fierce itary persons in the service of the enemy, forfeit their Anderson will take no military command in Kentucky, Carolina into the Confederacy. Pending the remarks of Mr. V., the hour of 2 o'clock arrived, and the Convention took a recess until 4 o'clock this afternoon. AFTERNOON SESSION.

The President laid before the Convention a message from the event of its adoption, its being submitted to a in compliance with a resolution of the Convention. Laid on the table, and ordered to be printed. The President announced Messrs. Hicks, Sanders, Batchelor, Stewart and Whitford, as the committee on the eligibility of members of the Legislature authorized to be raised, per resolution of Mr. Hicks. Mr. Venable resumed the floor, and concluded his remarks It. Rayner, from the committee on finance, to whom was upon the ordinance to ratify the permanent Constitution of the Confederate States. Mr. Smith, of Halifax, spoke in opposition to a postpone-

Mr. Mebane said having been much indisposed and de tained from his seat, he had not heard the discussion on this same being read the first time, a motion was made to subject, but he had come now for the purpose of voting for over these Southwestern States, from Fort Towson to Messrs. Batchelor and Long, of Randolph, then concluded to motion of Mr. Badger, the Convention at 3 o'clock and | the discussion, the former opposing a postponement and reference to the people, and in favor of the immediate pas-Mr. Graham withdrew his motion to postpone, and requested Mr. Dick to temporarily withdraw his amendment, to

> That North Carolina shall have an equal participation with all the other States in the first Congress, and in the election the first President under the permanent Constitution. mind relative to some of the provisions of the Constitution might be avoided. He believed that good had resulted from > all, and upon this, referred to the views expressed by Mr. Madison relative to the State of New York. After further discussion between Messrs. Ruffin opposing > and Kittrell favoring, the adoption of the proviso The question was then taken on the proviso, and resulted yeas 36, nays 79. Mr. Speed, an amendment in substance as follows, but subsequently, after discussion, withdrew it: That North terest of the State required it. Mr. Warren, an amendment, which the chair ruled out o order as it was an amendment in the third degree, and Mr. Dick's amendment taking precedence.

Mr. warren stated that it was the proviso as that incorthrough said Constitution on the Confederate Government, they shall be perverted to the injury of the people, each State by her delegates in Convention having the rights to be judge of the occasion that may require such action. t was decided in the negative-years 38. nays 76.

The yeas and nays being ordered. Those who voted he affirmative are, Messrs, Allison, Armfield, Battle of Wake, Berry, Bond Calloway, Cannon, Christian, Council, Davidson, Dick, Douthitt, Eller, Ellison, Ferebee, Gilmer, Gorrell, Graham, those hopes must be to any who, with hostile tread, ven- Commissioner Rhodes has arrived from Montgomery, Headen, Holden, Jones, of Caldwell, Kittrell, Long, Mann, ture to violate the sanctity of our soil. Manning, Merrit, Mitchell, Sanders, Smith, of Johnston Smith, of Macon, Speed, Sprouse, Spruill, of Bertie, Spruill, Cerrell, Thomas, of Carteret, Walton, Warren and Wil-

Those who voted in the negative are, Mr. President, Messrs. Arrington, Ashe, Badger, Barnes, Batchelor, Battle, of Edgecombe, Biggs, Brodnax, Brown, Bunting, Carson, Craige, Cunningham, Darden, Dillard, Durham, Foster, of Ashe, Fuller, Greene, Greenlee, Grimes, Herald: Hamlin, Hargrove, Hearne, Hankel, Hicks, Holmes, Houson, of Duplin, Houston, of Union, Howard, Johnston, of Gaston, Johnston, of Mecklenburg, Jones, of Rowan, Lanof Cumberland, McNeill, of Harnett, Meares, Mebane, Mil- meal is contained in the following brief paragraph: Thomas, of Jackson, Thomps

Woodfin and Wooten. Mr. Warren then offered his amendment, which was re jected-Yeas 26, nays 88. The question recurred upon the substitute of the Committee,

Mr. Ruffin, an amendment referring to the Constitution of the Confederate states, and making it a part of the ordinance. After some discussion, adopted. The question now recurred upon the substitute as amended by Mr. Ruffin, and it was adopted. Yeas 75, nays 41. The question was then put, shall this ordinance as amen-

ed, pass to its third reading, and decided in the affirmative Mr. Badger moved that the ordinance be now read its third time, and the motion prevailed. It was then read the third time by its title, and unaninously adopted. On motion of Mr. Craige, leave of absence was granted

o Mr. Henkel, Delegate from Catawba, for a few days, he having been called away by sickness in his family. On motion of Mr. Badger, the Convention at 8 o'clock, Companies in Raleigh and Immediate Vicinity. On Monday last the following companies were in the Camp of Instruction, and at the different encampments in wells by the bearings of the earth's axis, and that the the immediate vicinity of this city:

Polk County Volunteers, Captain C. Camp. Madison Light Infantry, Captain John Peak. Buncombe Sharpe Shooters, Capt. P. H. Thrash. that they report an ordinance providing for the payment of Jefferson Davis Macon County Guards, Capt. T. M. Angel. Black Mountain Boys, Captain J. S. McElroy. Rutherford Riflemen, Cappin H. D. Lee. Rough and Ready Boys, Captain Will. F. Jones. Guilford Men, Captain C. C. Cole. Rocky Mount Light Infantry, Captain G. W. Hammond. Kings Mountain Greys, Captain B. F. Briggs. Caswell Rifles, Captain E. M. Scott.

THE LINCOLN PLEET.—The steam frigate waoasa seen in the distance by many, as a remote possibility, and strong young men will be reseived in the distance by many, as a remote possibility, and strong young men will be reseived in the distance by many, as a remote possibilities. At is supposed to be the Union, previously reported off the Cape Fear Artillery, for the Volunteer service.—

| Description of the Cape Fear Artillery, for the Volunteer service.—
| Description of the Cape Fear Artillery, for the Volunteer service.—
| Description of the Cape Fear Artillery, for the Volunteer service.—
| Description of the Cape Fear Artillery, for the Volunteer service.—
| Description of the Cape Fear Artillery, for the Volunteer service.—
| Description of the Cape Fear Artillery, for the Volunteer service.—
| Description of the Cape Fear Artillery, for the Volunteer service.—
| Description of the Cape Fear Artillery, for the Volunteer service.—
| Description of the Cape Fear Artillery, for the Volunteer service.—
| Description of the Volunteer service.—
| De off the bar yesterday. On Sunday, two war vessels were all events, great anxiety exists in the minds of the peo- Savannah. off the bar yesterday. On Sunday, two war vessels were all events, great anxiety exists in the limits of the personal provisions of the British bark Edward, who is now seen off Cape Romain, and there is reason to suppose that, in addition to other vessels previously reported, the election of five Delegates on general ticket by the step of the election of five Delegates on general ticket by the step of the bar yesterday. On Sunday, two war vessels were all events, great anxiety exists in the limits of the personal deather beiting, lacing, ple of Maine, whose livelihood is so intimately associated with ship building and the cotton trade, the former of that, in addition to other vessels previously reported, with ship building and the cotton trade, the former of the British bark Edward, who is now seen off Cape Romain, and there is reason to suppose that, in addition to other vessels previously reported, with ship building and the cotton trade, the former of that, in addition to other vessels, when she will sail for Quebec. The left to transport in this city, will employ the Gen. Clinch to transport in this city, will employ the Gen. Clinch to transport in this city, will employ the Gen. Clinch to transport in this city, will employ the deather beiting, lacing, and can be found at the Store of Hedrick & Ryan. Letters with ship building and the cotton trade, the former of the the city for transport in this city, will employ the Gen. Clinch to transport in this city, will employ the Gen. Clinch to transport in this city, will employ the Gen. Clinch to transport in this city, will employ the Gen. Clinch to transport in this city, will employ the fent and the cotton trade days, and can be found at the Store of Hedrick & Ryan. Letters with ship the introduction of the Delegates of the city for transport in this city, will employ the Gen. Clinch to transport in this city, will employ the Gen. Clinch to transport in this city, will employ the Gen. Clinch to transport in the city for the city for the city for the city for that. In addition to prepare and report an ordinance providing the election of five Delegates on general ticket by the Charleston Courier. opment of the other .- N. Y. Day Book.

way here .- Raleigh Register.

Queen Victoria's Proclamation.

Whereas, we are happily at peace with all the sovereign Powers and States, and whereas, hostilities have The people do not desire or expect this election to the service of either of the contending parties, or by engaging to or going to any place beyond the seas, with You are particularly to avoid even the appearance of Captain. The principle decided is an important one, the intent to enlist or engage in any such service, or by using force or seduction, with the view to deprive such though we hope it will not be necessary to apply it often. and the men elected would not be a fair exponent of the procuring or attempting to procure, within her Majesty's vessels of their crews or the passengers, other than perdominion, at home or abroad, others to do so, or by fit- sons in the military service of the enemy. employed as a ship-of-war or privateer or transport by proceed in exercising the rights of the war, with all the United States. As there were no Senators in the Confederate Congress to correspond with the two proposed for the State at large it would be better to leave them out.

employed as a ship-of-war of privated of transport of the contending parties, or by breaking or endeavoring to break any blockade that has been fully and ment and its citizens. actually established by or on behalf of either of the said 4. The master, and one or more of the principal per-themselves in the premises, will do so at their peril and duced as they were received, without fraud, addition, he had listened with marked attention to the very able ar- of their own wrong, and they will in no wise obtain subtraction or embezzlement. guments of the Delegate from Wake, Mr. Badger, and the any protection from us against any liabilities or penal 5. Property, even of the enemy, is exempt from seipleasure by such misconduct.

Given at Richmond Park, May 13th, 1861.

it will fall upon his ears as did the inspired voice of livery of the contraband goods.

ing room, and the pioneer of the wilderness is dropping horsefurniture, holsters, belts, and generally all other the war -Richmond Dispatch. his axe and snatching up his deadly rifle, all to array implements of war. themselves in the ranks of war. Our mountain tops Also, timber for ship building, pitch, tar, rosin, copprovisional Constitution certain clauses, and also ative of a class whose alleged degradation and uncom- Neutral vessels conveying enemy's dispatches or mil- The Louisville Journal, editorially, says that Col. passions of twenty millions of men in the North, comes | neutral character, and are liable to capture and condem- | but that he goes to the mountains of Pennsylvania on |

Our women, the daughters of mothers who moulded sadors of the enemy residing in neutral countries. His Excellency, the Goveror, enclosing the articles of War bullets and carried them hot in their aprons to their By the command of the President of the Confederate at length in opposition to the Ordinance, and favor- for the government of the army of the Confederate States. husbands as they stood behind their stockades and re- States. pelled the assaults of the merciless savage, are practicing themselves in the use of fire-arms, and forming voluntary associations to prepare lint and bandages for the wounded-condiments, medicines, and other comforts for the sick and toil-worn soldier!

Sir, I have been in this State forty years. The In- ed to Suffolk in a few days : dian boundary line, when I came to Tennessee was two hundred miles East of this place. It is now twice that distance West. It is now I know not where. I have traveled oftener than I can count years of my life, all Tallahasseee-from Virginia to Texas, and mingled freely with the people, under all the ordinary circumstances of social intercourse. I have had the best opsage of the ordinance, and the latter against postponement, portunities to know them intimately, and, I think, unand in favor of the amendment of Mr. Dick to refer to the derstand their character thoroughly. I tell you, in all the soberness of truth, that wherever the invader shall attempt to pass the borders of the State, with hostile intent, he will be met by a living wall of men, with brave enable him to offer a proviso. The request having been complied with, the proviso, in substance as follows, was bearts and hands armed for the strife of death, more difficult to pass than breastworks frowning with cannons and bristling with bayonets, more numerous than those of the North can compel them to submission. You may says kill them, but as Cambronne is reported to have replied, Mr. Badger said he was opposed to the proviso, because in behalf of the old guard, to the demand for surrender raised never had any existence in reality, not more than presentation to a ratification which was conditional was no ratification at on the bloody field of Waterloo, "they die! they never eighty men having at any time signed their names as petuosity, their reckless daring. But I know, too, and have disbanded. The captain's baggage was seized for others who have fought by their side know also, that board in New York, and he has returned to Canada. they can be cool and steady as veterans, when the oc- highly disgusted. The Garibaldi Legion is said to be casion demands. Accustomed from childhood to the coming on very slowly, it being found difficult to fill CLERK, and respectfully solicit your votes at the election Carolina reserve to herself the right to resume the powers handling of arms, and practiced in their skillful use, it up. The new Irish recruits, our informant is of in August next. therein delegated whenever the people declared that the in- | in the chase, which frequently involves dangerous encoun- | opinion, sympathize with the South, and many of them | ters with formidable wild beasts, they acquire all the would be glad to desert at a good opportunity. The readiness of attack and defence which marks the veteran | best material the North has for fighting purposes is bein war, and far more activity than he possesses. It is lieved to be opposed to the war. not to be denied that the same qualities of soldiership | Our informant says he cannot imagine a greater conporated in the secession ordinance of the State of Florida. distinguish the troops of the Northern States, where the physique and deportment of the Northern the physique and deportment of the Northern the physique and the Virginia forces at Harper's Ferry, pline. But this admission suggests first and foremost, from which point he has come direct to Richmond. emanated from the people of the several States, in their seperate sovereign capacity, said powers may be resumed the thought, by no means a pleasing one to minds which He says that he believes that literally there are no betthe same manner in which they are delegated, whenever are set on peace, that an encounter between such troops, ter soldiers in the world than those at Harper's Ferry, must be proportionately more destructive. But be that and the number of them is very large. They are well as it may, the coolness and deliberation with which our armed, well equipped, in excellent health, and eager for The question recurring upon the amendment of Mr. Dick, people are preparing for the conflict, may well surprise a collision with the foe. any one, and knowing their temperament, as I do, I may add, their calmness filled some with amazement. They certainly instire high hopes as to the final result of this Government is about going into operation, and, we are the election to be held in August next. unfortunate difference, disastrous as the realization of glad to observe, under the most favorable auspices .-

> of the Herald, and Webb of the Courier and Enquirer, talent exists in the South, and that we must depend all gentlemen and Southrons are of course indifferent, upon the North for the various improvements which but many readers can enjoy, as a masterpiece of apposite lessen labor and save time. That this is a false impresimpudence, the following fling from the New York sion-false as the thousand and one slanders against the ter of editorial dirt eating the martial hero of the Cou- yet untouched business of our Patent Office alrier and Enquirer makes it all right yesterday in the ready affords ample proof. No less than 120 apder, Leak, of Anson, Leak, of Richmond, McDowell, of Bladen, McDowell, of Burke, McDowell, of Madison, McNeill, case of Major Anderson. The whole gist of this copious plications for new patents, 40 applications to revive made against him on Monday. The charge was based Government is not less fhan $5000; and, though war has Turner, Venable, Ward, Washington, Whitford, Williams, on falsehood and lying, and, by the removal of its founda, been going on almost ever since the great political move-claiming it false and slanderous." The question recurred upon the substitute of the Committee,

Mr. Craige said he would vote against the substitute, but The whole charge was a piece of falsehood and lying, it, and whenever peace ensues we shall be able to present 20th of July. it false and slanderous. The Chevalier is all right now, art as has been done by the mechanics of the North .send on that fifty-two thousand dollars, not forgetting enjoy results without the trouble of producing them .conscience is clear, and his shirt collar white and with- must be our own architects. out a stain.

> TAKING OUT ALL THE GREASE FROM THE AXIS .- A government of the United States, or some other mun- ready to march at a moment's warning. dane power, ought to interfere at once and put a stop to further boring or pumping for oil on this continent .--He is quite certain that the oil is being drawn to these earth will cease to turn when the lubrication ceases .for ordinary minds to contemplate or comprehend. It nisheh by Robeson to the cause of the country. had better be attended to at once.—Ex. Paper.

THE EFFECTS OF THE WAR IN MAINE .- An intel'i- The steamer Gen. Clinch arrived here from St. gent gentleman from Maine informs us that the war Helena on Sunday morning. She brought in tow the policy of Mr. Lincoln is becoming more and more can- schooner Howell Cobb, Capt. Bonneau; at 81/2 A. M., vassed in that State, and daily less popular. He says Saturday, saw the British bark Edward, about ten flat, and that he is at a loss to know what the people and at the same time an United States armed steamer will do. The idea that England may get the carrying was in sight and coming towards the Clinch. When trade of the South, and that eastern vessels will be the latter was within four miles of North Edisto en-Large numbers of other troops are, we learn, on their thrown out of employment, stands up like a nightmare trance, she was fired at by the man-of-war, and the latter before the people. The late development of English | was answered by the Howell Cobb. THE LINCOLN FLEET.—The steam frigate Wabash policy in that direction has stimulated this fear, long seen in the distance by many, as a remote possibility, Edisto Bar and she remained off there some time. She

An Important Document -Jeff. Davis Letter of Marque.

PRESIDENT'S INSTRUCTION TO PRIVATE ARMED VESSELS. Lynchburg Virginian, of yesterday morning, 5th:

ten. He was in favor also of electing them by the Convention of the convention of the people do not desire or expect this election to ting out, arming or equipping any ship or vessel to be 3 Towards enemy vessels and their crews you are to ing him to shirk from his duty in the way he proposed contending parties, or by carrying officers, soldiers, dispatches, arms, military stores or materials, or any arti- the capture as may be, to the judge or judges of the proone from each Congressional District, and two for the State | cle considered or deemed to be contraband of war accorat large, and would also vote for submitting the election to ding to law or the modern usage of nations, for the use on oath touching the interests or property of the capof either of the said contending parties; all parties so tured vessel and her lading; and, at the same time, are offending will incur and be liable to the several penalties to be delivered to the judge or judges, all parties, bills of The hour of 11 o'clock having now arrived, the President and penal consequences by the said statue, or by the law lading, letters and other documents and writings found on board; and the said papers to be proved by the And we do hereby declare that all our subjects and affidavit of the commander of the captured vessel, or persons entitled to our protection, who may misconduct some other person present at the capture, to be pro-> consequences, but will, on the contrary, incur our dis- zure on neutral vessels, unless it be contraband of war. If goods contraband of war are found on board any neutral vessel, and the commander thereof shall offer to give them up, the offer shall be accepted, and the vessel left at liberty to pursue its voyage, unless the quantity BISHOP OTEY.—The Mem phis Appeal publishes a of contraband goods shall be greater than can be conlong and eloquent letter from Bishop Otey, of Tennes- veniently received on board your vessel, in which case was a prominent Tammany politician, and as a private see, (a native of Virginia,) to WM. H. Seward. But the neutral vessel may be carried into port, for the de- citizen universally respected.

offer at a proper time, that provision should be made for the participation of North Carolina in the first Congress South:

| Called the Office of the military spirit of the cantraband of war as well as all others that are so declared by this document of the military spirit of the cantraband of war as well as all others that are so declared by the law of nations, viz: clared by the law of nations, viz:

Mr. V. based his arguments principally upon the position and valleys are pouring forth their hardy sons, while our per in sheet, sails, hemp, cordage, and generally whatplains are alive with armed men, eager for the strife of ever may serve directly to the equipment of vessels, soon as the enterprising proprietor is prepared to meet > forward, voluntarily, and begs the favor of being allow- nation. But this rule does not apply to neutral vessels account of his failing health. ed to fight for the land where he toils for his daily bread. bearing dispatches from the public ministers or ambas-ROBERT TOOMBS. Secretary of State.

> > Fourth N. C. Regiment. The following are the officers and companies of the 4th N. C. Regiment, now at Garysburg, but to be order-Colonel-Junius Daniel :

Major-Paul P. Faison. COMPANIES. 1. Roanoke Minute men, Capt. Johnston; 2. Thomasville Rifles, Capt. Miller; 3. Anson Guards, Capt. Smith;

Lieut. Colonel-Geo. P. Lovejoy;

4. Cleveland Blues, Capt. Dixon; 5. Oak City Guards, Capt. Faribault 6. Rough and Ready Guards, Capt. Vance; 7. Reid Guards, Capt. Slade

8. Stanly Marksmee, Capt. Anderson; 9. Lexington Wild Cats, Capt. Hargrove; 10. Raleigh Rifles, Capt. Harrison.

which crown the ramparts of Burgos. Numbers may an interview with an intelligent Virginia gentleman, ing bills and notes, thereby enabling us to visit the Euro-In offering the proviso, Mr. Graham said he had moved to overcome and destroy these men, but in my conscience, who reached that city on the 6th instant for New York. pean market as early as possible. This step west be taken, ostpone, in order that a difficulty which existed in his I declare, that I do not believe that the united strength | The editor's informant, after referring to other matters, or we shall be compelled to close our Manufactory.

members, and their captain, having failed to obtain the I repeat that I know this people; I know their im- means for supporting them from Washington, the eighty opened bis Department at Goddin's building, and in a very short time will be ready to proceed to business .-Dog Against Dog,-In a quarrel between Bennett It has been frequently said that little or no inventive character of the Southern people which have been so Chevalier Webb All Right .- In a column and a quar- persistently set forth by the Northern press-the old ones, 40 caveats filled for future action, and part to please them. "We acquit Major Anderson as fully as language numerous assignments for record await the action of ler, Moody, Mosely, Myers, Osborne, Penland, Pettigrew, Phifer, Rayner, Reid, Rhodes, Royster, Ruffin, Satterthwaite, Shaw, Shipp, Smith, of Habiax, Sutherland, Stewart, Shaw, Shipp, Smith, of Habiax, Shipp, Smith, o That will do. That is ample and competent enough. traordinary degree. Events must continue to develope from home a volunteer, but if not killed will be back the and Chevalier Webb is "most happy" in proclaiming to the world as fair a showing in the improvements of and we hope that the Secretary of the Treasury will Heretofore we have been dependent, because we could the odd fractions, and that the Secretary of War will But that time has now passed. The emergency is bringforthwith transmit the commission of Major-General. ing out our resources, showing the stamina of the peo-Chevalier Webb is now quite bright and polished; his ple, and teaching us that if we have a destiny to fill we next. Richmond Dispatch, June 7.

FAIR GROUND CAMP.—Capt. E. D. Hall is in comgentleman who has spent some days in the region of the | mand of three companies of 2d regiment of State Troops, oil wells in Pennsylvania, says that in his opinion the now at the Fair Ground Camp, in this vicinity, all

Goldsboro' Tribune.

ROBESON COUNTY .- "The Highland Boys" are now quartered at Floral College, subject to the orders of the Governor. They number 85, with T. D. Love Captain; the satisfaction of all concerned, and returning to you my Such a suspension would beat anything that ever agita- A. A. McIver 1st Lieutenant, Dr. J. W. McNair 2d, ted Wall-street, and the consequences will be too great and H. P. Purcell 3d. This is the third Company furmyself as a candidate for re-election to that office, at the etc., all of which will be sold low for Cash. Fayetteville Observer.

that ship building and the lumber trade are completely miles from St. Helena bar, apparently steering for Tybee, TO THE VOTERS OF NEW HANOVER COUNTY. TY COURT CLERK of your county, and respectfully solicit your votes at the next August election.

HABEAS CORPUS CASE.—We copy following from the 1. The tenor of your commission, under the act of On yesterday a writ of habeas corpus was decided by United States and certain States atpling themselves the United States and certain States styling themselves the Confederate States of America and whomean me between the United States and the Confederate decides an important principle John Hannibsa, of Confederate States of America and whomean me hadren and was between the United States and the Confederate decides an important principle John Hannibsa, of Confederate decides an important principle John Hannibsa, of Confederate decides an important principle John Hannibsa, of Confederate decides and the Confederate decides an important principle John Hannibsa, of Confederate decides and the Confederate decides an important principle John Hannibsa, of Confederate decides and the Confederate decides an important principle John Hannibsa, of Confederate decides and the Confederate decides an important principle John Hannibsa, of Confederate decides and the Confederate d Mr. Osborne was in favor of the proposition to elect two Confederate States of America; and whereas, we being States, and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was States, and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and prize Franklin, (not a native, however, we understand,) was states and concerning letters of marque, prizes and pr at peace with the Government of the United States, have goods," a copy of which is hereto annexed, will be kept brought before Judge Marshall on a writ of habeas declared our royal determination to maintain a strict constantly in your view. The high seas referred to in corpus sued out on his petition. The facts of the case as circumstances had since caused him to change his views.

Mr. Hicks was in faver of electing ten, but by the Conparties; we therefore have thought fit, by and with the Mr. Hicks was in favor of electing ten, but by the Conparties; we therefore have thought fit, by and with the
to the low water mark; but with the exception of the Cavalry in the county of Franklin, with a view to acadvice of our Privy Council, to issue our royal proclasspace within one league, or three miles from the shore of tive service in the present difficulties, of which Giles by making the eight proposed in said amendment to be all revenue with the United States and the W. B. Hale is Captain. When the company marched from the Congressional Districts and two additional for the all persons whatever entitled to our protection, that if Confede ate States. You will nevertheless execute your to the rendezvous, poor John was not torthcoming, State at large. The President announced the amendment any of them shall presume, in comtempt of this proclacommission within that distance of the shore of the nation though notified and ordered to march. He was captured mation and of cur high displeasure, to do any acts in and within the jurisdiction of such nation, if permitted near this place a few days ago by a guard from his were appointed. Either way suggested would satisfy him.

Ten wise heads in these times of revolution were heads in the service, and he applied for this write the first of the law of nations and more expecially by containing that he would not be more expecially by containing that he would not be more expecially by containing that he would not be more expecially by containing that he would not be more expecially by containing that he would not be more expecially by containing that he would not be more expecially by containing that he would not be more expecially by containing that he would not be more expecially by containing the service. Ten wise heads in these times of revolution were better of the law of nations, and more especially by entering neutral powers, and the usages of civilized nations; and against his Captain, alleging that he would not be mustal powers, and the usages of civilized nations; and Messs, Hayner, Merritt, Berry, Royster and micks.

Messs, Hayner, Merritt, Berry, Royster and micks.

It wise neads in these times of revolution were better than five, and he was certain that none would be sent but the military service of either of the contending parties, in all your proceedings towards neutral vessels, you are the deliver of the contending parties.

It wise neads in these times of revolution were better than five, and he was certain that none would be sent but the military service of either of the contending parties, in all your proceedings towards neutral vessels, you are altogether from market. as commissioned or non-commissioned officers, sailors or to give them as little molestation or interruption as will proper to withdraw after he found the company was to was altogether from market. vote in the Provisional Congress and five can do as well as marines, or by serving as officers, sailors or marines on consist with the right of ascertaining their neutral charge.

Judge Marshall beld that he could not absolve

Third N. C. Regiment.

Colonel.-W. D. Pender. Lieut Colonel .- W. S. Guy. Major .- D. H. Hamilton. Reg. Quar. Master .- David Pender. Reg. Commissary.-Thos. Cain.

 Yanceyville Grays, Capt. Graves. 2. Randelsburg Rifles, Capt. Erwin. 3. Milton Blues, Capt. Mitchell.

Edgecombe Rifles, Capt. Hyman. 8. Rockingham Guards, Capt. Scales, 9. Rockingham Rangers, Capt. Settle. Dixie Boys, Capt. Bailey.

Mr. Rayner stated he had a proviso which he desired to Aaron upon the ears of Pharoan. We extract the The following articles are declared by this Government called the "Union," cast at Pittsburg, and weighing Sir, believe me, when I say that from the Chesapeake All arms and implements, serving for the purpose of Friday. The water where the gun fell in was about

A churn factory has been established in this city, and demands .- Charleston Courier.

Quarterly Conference be at the next session. DIRECT IMPORTATION: We have hitherto been entirely dependent upon our North-

> -AND-MANUFACTURED GOODS!

One of the editors of the Richmond Dispatch has had | Winter supplies. Our friends will greatly oblige us by pay-ANY ACCOUNT OR OBLIGATION DUE, The famous English Regiment that was to have been AGAINST US, WHATEVER, will be paid cheerfully on > 38 Market Street, Wilmington, N. C. June 11th, 1861-tlst July-ltw. I am a candidate for the office of SUPERIOR COURT JULIUS W. WRIGHT.

180&32-te We are authorized to announce OWEN FENNELL Jr., as a candidate for the office of COUNTY COURT CLERK of New Hanover County, at the election in August

TO THE VOTERS OF NEW HANOVER COUNTY Court Clerk of New Hanover County, at the election to be 230 HHDS. I OFFER myself as a candidate for the office of Superior WM. M. HARRISS. held in August next. TO THE VOTERS OF NEW HANOVER COUNTY.

I offer myself as candidate for the office of SUPERIOR THE PATENT OFFICE.—This branch of our new COURT CLERK of this county, and solicit your votes a OU June 11. March 14, 1861-29-te* A. E. TAYLOR.

WE are authorized to announce DUGALD BLUE, as a candidate for the Office of COUNTY COURT CLERK of Bladen County, at the election in August next.

FELLOW-CITIZENS of the COUNTY OF DUPLIN. I am again a candidate for re-election to the office of 10 June 11th, 1861. COUNTY COURT CLERK. If, inded, I have impartially done my duty to the satisfaction of all concerned, as I humbly hope I have done, may I not feel sure, that at the great 3000 YARDS just rec tribunal of the ballot box, at the ensuing election in August next, a generous people will sustain an honest effort on my JOHN J. WHITEHEAD. April 3, 1861. 176-1w-32-te 1000 MAKING UP at June 11--1&w TO THE VOTERS OF DUPLIN COUNTY. FELLOW CITIZENS:-I take this method of announcing tion, falls to the ground; and we are most happy in protive talent of our people has been stimulated to an exlight rows votes at the next Angust election. Lam now off tive talent of our people has been stimulated to an ex- licit your votes at the next August election. I am now off D. M. McINTIRE. May 23d, 1861-39-te.*

> fully solicit your votes at the ensuing election in Augus B. B. BARRY. May 30, 1861 .- 40-te. TO THE VOTERS OF NEW HANOVER COUNTY. I OFFER MYSELF as a Candidate for the Office of SU-> PERIOR COURT CLERK, and respectfully solicit your votes at the ensuing election in August next. 31-te-178-te March 28, 1861. TO THE VOTERS OF NEW HANOVER COUNTY.

> HOPING that I have heretofore discharged the duties of the office of Clerk of the County Court of this County to thanks for your former liberal support, I respectfully offer ensuing election on the first Thursday in August next. SAML. R. BUNTING.

ALL PERSONS indebted to the JOURNAL in any manner, are respectfully requested to settle the same, whether large or small amounts. FULTON & PRICE. I hereby offer myself as candidate for the office of COUN-

165-t

VOLUNTEER SERVICE. None other but those of temperate habits and general good

March 14, 1861-194&29-te* T. H. W. McINTIRE.

In this County, on the 7th inst., WILLIAM M. HARRISS. infant son of John A. and Ann M. Scarborough, aged months and 16 days-As the sweet flower that scents the morn-But withers in the rising day, Thus sweetly was this infants dawn. Thus gently fled its life away. useful and much respected citizen. COMMERCIAL. WILMINGTON MARKET, June 12. Nothing of consequence has been done in country pro-

The following are the Officers and Companies composing the third N. C. Regiment now at Suffolk, Virment, and remanded him back to the custody of his ious to retain him, though they had no idea of allow-

COMPANIES.

4. Leasburg Grays, Capt. Hambrick 5. Alamance Regulators, Capt. Ruffin. 6. Davie Grays, Capt. Clement.

DECEASED .- James Conner, Esq., the well known

THE "UNION" GUN OVERBOARD .- A monster gun being shipped at Baltimore for Fortress Monroe last Wilmington District-Third Round. REV. DR. DEEMS'S APPOINTMENTS. " 22, 23, Magnolia " 29, 30, North East July 6, 7, Duplin 13, 14, Smithville " 70, 21, TopsailScott's Hill. " 27, 28, Elizabeth Aug. 3, 4, Wilmington 5, 6, 7, Sampson* 10, 11, Bladent " 17, 18, WilmingtonTabernacle. " 24, 25, Onslow *The Quarterly Conference for Sampson will be held on Wednesday, the 7th. flt is very important that all the members of the Blader

ern Manufacturers, for supplies of CASSIMERES, CLOTHS, VESTINGS,

Our determination is to look to another market for Fall and

BBLS. Super. Flour. For sale by O. S. BALDWIN, SUNDRIES.

HHDS. Choice new crop Cardenas Molasses, in 250 HHDS. Choice new crop new and bright packages; 30 bbls. strictly choice New Orleans Molas es; 75 do C and extra C Sugar ;

30 Casks prime whole Rice; 30 Kegs Nails; 10 Tons Hoop Iron , 20 bbls. Distillers' Glue; 40 do Extra heavy Cincinnatti Pork : 100 bales prime Eastern Hay; 50 bbls. N. C. Flour:

CHOICE CARDENAS MOLASSES.) CHOICE NEW CROP MOLASSES now landing from Sch'r " Mara-

May 20. On KEGS 8d, 12d and 20d Nails. For sale by HATHAWAY & CO.

HATHAWAY & CO. GLUE_GLUE. O BBLS. of best Distillers' Glue. For sale by

BALES of good Hay. For sale by HATHAWAY & CO. OSNABURGS_OSNABURGS. NORTH CAROLINA MAKE!

YARDS just received. Prices low, for eash, at BALDWIN'S. CANTON FLANNEL_RED FLANNEL, OTR'PES, Checks, &c., &c., at June 11-d&w BALDWIN'S. HICKORY SHIRTS.

BALDWIN'S.

HARDEE'S June 1 1861. ENCOURAGE HOME. THE SOUTHERN FIELD AND FIRESIDE, one of the

FELLOW-CITIZENS OF THE COUNTY of ONSLOW. the same size of the famous New York Ledger. This No., I hereby offer myself as a candidate for the office of 52, is the commencement of a New Volume, persons wish-COUNTY COURT CLERK of your county, and respect- ing to take it should begin with this number. Call at May 20, 1861. KELLEY'S BOOK STORE. SPORTSMAN'S OINTMENT,

FOR PRESERVING GUN BARRELS and all Steel Mountings from rust, and to render BOOTS AND SHOES WATER PROOF. Price 50 cents. For sale at KELLEY'S BOOK STORE

MILITARY WORKS. FRESH supply of the Volunteer's Hand Book, an abridgement of Hardee's Rifle and Infantry Tactics, ound in 2 volumes. A few copies at June 6.

GROCERIES! GROCERIES!: WE WOULD RESPECTFULLY INFORM our friends, and Merchants generally, that we have now on hand a large and well selected stock of FAMILY GROCERIES. consisting of Bacon, Sugars, of all grades, Rio Coffee, Mess Pork, Candles, Tobacco, Cigars, Pepper, Spice, Snuff, etc.,

March 20 1861. WILMINGTON IRON AND COPPER WORKS, FRONT STREET, BELOW MARKET,

L. A. HART & JOHN C. BAILEY, Proprietors, PRACTICAL BUILDERS of portable and stationary Steam Engines, or any course quired power and kind of boiler, saw mills, grist mills, gin gearings, and any other kind any establishment South. Have on hand a large variety of patterns for machinery now in general use in the surrounding country. Will supply drafts of all kinds of machinery and mill work. Turpentine stills and copper work in all its branches. All kinds of iron and brass castings, finished or unfinished, at short notice. Old

In connection with the above establishment, we have on Lard 12 a 14 cents; Molasses—Cuba 35 a 40 cents, New Orleans 50 a 00 cents; Salt—Liverpool Sack $2 50 a $0 00, Alum 50 a 00; Flaxseed $1 00 a $1 10; Spirits—Peach Brandy $1 00 a $1 25, N. C. Apple do., 60 a 65 cents, do. Whisky 60 a 65 cents; Tallow 10 a 00 cents; Wool 19 a 20 cents; Turpentine-Yellow Dip $1 10 a $0 00, Virgin 00 80c, Hard 35 a 00 cents, Spirits 23 a 00 cents.

Our market has been very quiet for the last few days;

only change to be noticed is in Spirits Turpentine, which is

We omit our usual Prices Current table, as there are no sales taking place except in the retail way, and prices are

FAYETTEVILLE, June 10 .- Bacon 00 a 15 cents; Beeswax 28 a 30; Cotton-Fair to good 11 a 00. Ordinary to Middling 84 a 10; Feathers 45 a 50; Flour-Family $7 00 a

$7 25, Super. $6 75 a $7 00, Fine $6 50 a $6 75, Scratched

$6 25 a $6 50; Grain-Corn 90 a 95 cents, Wheat $1 25 a

$0 00, Rye $1 25, Oats 50 a 60 cents, Peas $1 00 a $1 20;

about the same as reported for the past three weeks.

almost entirely withdrawn from the market; 23 cts. is the MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

PORT OF WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA. ARRIVED. 10-Schr. Elizabeth, Hall, from Newbern, to Stokley & Oldham; with 4,000 bushels corn.

ham; with 5 900 bushels corn, 400 do. peas. Steamer North Carolina, Barber, from Fayetteville, to A. 12 .- Schr. Baltimore, Dennis, from Washington, N. C., to J. T. Petteway & Co.; 2000 bushels corn. CLEARED.

Schr. Pearl, Robbins, from Newbern, to Stokley & Old

5-Br. Schr. Trader, Williams, for London, by J. & D. McRae & Co.; with 1,086 bb/s. spirits turpentine, 127 do. Br. Brig Tyne, Kenny, for Liverpool, by J. & D. McRae & Co.; with 1,335 bbis. spirits turpentine, 225 do. rosin, 10 do. tar, 4 do. cotton. 11-Br. Brig Ariel, Templeton, for Liverpool, by DeRosset, Brown & Co.; with 183 bbls. spirits turpentine, 247 do.

crude turpeetine 270 do. rosin, 976 do. tar.

B. G. Worth. Steamer North Carolina, Barber, for Fayetteville, by A Rosset, Brown & Co.; with 402 bbls. spirits turp., 1,060 do 363,000 LBS. COTTON YARN PER ANNUM

THE CELEBRATED ROCKY MOUNT MILLS, Edge-

Steamer A. P. Hurt, Hurt, for Fayetteville, by T. C.

combe county, N. C., continue to manufacture 1200 lbs. Cotton Yarn daily, and are prepared to furnish assorted Nos., 4s to 12s, by the bale of 200 lbs., at 20 cents per lb months time, at any of our Railroad Depots in Eastern N. Carolina, free of freight. The Mills and Machinery are in fine condition, and the quality of the Yarns guaranteed. Orders solicited from punctual buyers. Address, WM. S. BATTLE,

Rocky Mount,

Edgecombe County, N. C.

PISTOLS AND SWORDS. TUST RECEIVED, a small invoice of PISTOLS; also, a few SWORDS, at June 13, 1861.—42-2t WILSON'S MILITARY COMPANIES ORGANIZING, CURNISHED with EQUIPMENTS, at June 13, 1861.-42-2t HARNESS MAKERS, COACH TRIMMERS

JAMES WILSON'S Harness, Trunk, Saddlery, Leather and Oil Establishment. No. 5, Market st. June 13, 1861 -42-2t A REWARD OF TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS each, will be given for the apprehension and delivery of my two boys, SOLOMON and ESSEC. SOLOMON is dark, full head of hair, thick lips, has a scar on his left hand between his thumb and finger-his height about five feet, ten or eleven inches ESSEC is about five feet, five or seven inches high-yellow skin, has a scar between the right eye and eye brow, caused by the bite of a dog, very heavy set.

J. J. D. LUCAS.

ND SHOE MAKERS wanted to stitch en MILITARY

A TRAPPINGS, to whom the highest wages will be paid,

CHARLESTON RI E. CASKS prime Whole Rice. For sale by HATHAWAY & CO. NORTH CAROLINA FLOUR.

HATHAWAY & CO.

25 Hhds. choice Western Bacon, sides and shoul-

100 boxes best Adamantine and Star Candles. For ale for cash, by HATHAWAY & CO.

) caybo," direct from Cardenas. For sale by G. C. & W. J. MUNRO.

HOOP IRON. 10 TONS of bright 1 to 14 inch. For sale by June 11. HATHAWAY

June 11th, 1861. HATHAWAY & CO.

best Literary and Agricultural papers in the South,-

COX, KENDALL & CO.

WILMINGTON, N. C.